

- The benefits to the student for successfully completing a course under the program, including the ability to reduce the overall costs of, and the amount of time required for, a college education.
- The academic and social responsibilities of students and parents under the program;
- Information about and encouragement to use the counseling services of the college in which the student intends to enroll;
- The standard packet of information for the program developed by the Chancellor of the Ohio Department of Higher Education. (See the www.ohiohighered.org/ccp/resources page for the Information Session PowerPoint presentation.)
- Information about the potential for mature subject matter, as defined in section 3365.035 of the Revised Code, in courses in which the student intends to enroll through the program and notification that courses will not be modified based upon program enrollee participation regardless of where course instruction occurs. The information shall include the permission slip described in division (B) of section 3365.035 of the Revised Code (attached).
- Secondary schools must also provide information of the administrative rules of Course Eligibility (OAC 3333-1-65.12) and Underperforming Students (OAC 3333-1-65.13).
- Information about Options A and B to include the following details:
- For a participating nonpublic secondary school, counseling information shall also include an explanation that funding may be limited and that not all students who wish to participate may be able to do so.¹

Private Schools

Option A: The student/family will be financially responsible for tuition and the cost of all textbooks, materials, and fees associated with the College Credit Plus course.

- If a student was not awarded enough credit hours for the entire college course, the family must pay for the entire course without state funds
- Under Option A, the student/ family must work directly with the college to arrange to make payment
- Option A allows the student to choose to earn both college credit and high school credit OR only college credit
- Option A must be elected at the time the student registers for college courses
- Students must inform the college and the secondary school of electing Option A and whether student wants to earn both high school and college credits or only college credits

Option B: The state of Ohio is financially responsible for the eligible course(s) in which the student chooses to enroll.

- When a student uses the state funds for college courses, this is Option B
- Option B is the default option of College Credit Plus
