

STUDENT AMBASSADOR APPLICATION

Sponsored by the Office of Admissions, our Student Ambassadors are actively involved with recruiting quality Trinity High School students.

As a Student Ambassador, you will be called on to help promote Trinity to prospective students and families through a variety of activities during the school year. These activities include, but are not limited to, hosting prospective students on shadow days, helping at placement exams, and giving tours at Open House.

Complete this application and return it to Ms. Kurtz in the Admissions Office by the end of the day on August 31.
